Co-Producer & Featured Pilgrim Biography

Annie O'Neil – Co-Producer/Feature Pilgrim

Annie has traveled around the world and studied in both France and Italy. Her wit and humor have been especially useful in her work as a teacher, writer, singer and actress (among other jobs). Annie finds inspiration in nature, whether working in her own garden or exploring distant lands. She considers her pilgrimage and participation in the production of "Walking the Camino: Six Ways to Santiago" among the greatest achievements of her life. She has compiled a record of that journey in her book "Everyday Camino with Annie." Originally a New Yorker, Annie now lives in California with her two dogs and a husband who is deeply grateful for her phenomenal carrot cake.
